Dr. Richard Klein and his wife Marjorie Klein have developed an innovative way to teach children with special needs how to ride bikes and literally "Lose the Training Wheels". Through the use of unique adapted bikes and 1:1 assistance, children can be well on their way to mastering this fun childhood activity.

Application packets are available at www.westhartford.org/losethetrainingwheels or at West Hartford Humans & Leisure Services, 50 South Main Street, West Hartford, Room 128.
